f. Wicked " Gibbs and James A. Cowie, candidates for Assemblyman, have divided the Republican vote, which is largely in the majority, there were probably more paster ballots used to-tay than in any other district in the city. Tammany Hall was using them under orders and Gibes was putting out both the Grant and Scott tickets with his name on each. $ His workers did not urge the Grant paster, bowever, offering that of Scott first. GI be had established private headquarters for the day over 275 Eighth avenue, and there "Jim Cowie is like the scales on one of his the Tammany and P. M. L. mottree, and was attending to "business and pointes" at his flam market, 148 Ninth avenue.

"Gibbs will be the third man in this race," be declared, "and I will be first."

Both the Gibbs and Cowie faction-workers were agreed that Scott would carry the district by 1,000. This is a small majority for so, stong a R-publican district.

Tammany leader Sheehan discovered that its candidate for Assembly, James A. Southworth, was being traded for Gibbs in the lower part of the district, and went down there and read the riot act to his district capitains.

"Saceban 1's trying sard to cleek a Democrat so as to help his brother to the Speaker-Rap," said ex-School Commissioner Sprague to Hev. Stephen Merratt, another Cowiette.

"That helps Mr. Cowie."
